

J. Scott McLeod, MHA, B. Comm (H), Executive Lead

Scott McLeod is a dynamic, collaborative health care chief executive with 30 years of experience, focused on leading people and organizations to new levels of performance and results/outcomes. Most recently, Scott was the CEO at Ontario Health for Mississauga Halton, Central West, Central & North Simcoe Muskoka Local Health Integration Networks. Scott previously served as the CEO of the Central West Local Health Integration Network from 2012-2020. He has also served in senior leadership positions at Trillium Health Centre, Mississauga Halton Local Health Integration Network, Agnew Peckham, and Halton Peel

District Health Council. Scott has held a number of progressive senior management positions in Manitoba, Alberta & Ontario,

Scott's areas of expertise include the integration and transformation of healthcare, executive leadership, board governance, and strategy and execution. Under his leadership, he consistently balanced the $1 Billion LHIN budget and secured over $200 Million in new base funding to enable improved access to health services. Scott also supported the successful establishment of Ontario Health including the Regional Design as a member of Ontario Health's senior leadership team.

Scott is a sought-after change agent who communicates with candour and passion, creating a clear sense of direction. He is an integrative thinker with a passion for driving continuous quality improvement and business transformation and a demonstrated ability to successfully lead and empower diverse teams to create solutions to complex problems.