

Dr. Medhat El-Mallah

Regional Radiation Lead

Biography

Dr. Medhat El-Mallah is the Regional Radiation Lead for the Central East Regional Cancer Program and Section Chief of Radiation Oncology for the R.S. McLaughlin Durham Regional Cancer Centre (DRCC) at Lakeridge Health. Dr. El-Mallah received his Bachelor degree of Medicine and Surgery from Minia University in Egypt, and his Masters and Ph.D in Radiation Oncology from Cairo University. He is also a fellow of The Royal College of Physician and Surgeons of Canada.

Dr. El-Mallah completed his Residency in Radiation Oncology at Princess Margaret Hospital in Toronto before joining the DRCC team in 2007, where he has helped mentor Radiation Oncology, Radiation Therapy and Medical Physics residents from the University of Toronto and Queen's University' residency programs.

In addition to his current role, Dr. El-Mallah has also held several leadership roles at the DRCC and Cancer Care Ontario, primarily focused on lung cancer management and stereotactic radiation. He is the DRCC Radiation lung-site group lead, and a member of the CCO's Lung Disease Site Program in Evidence-based Care Committee and the Diagnostic Imaging Synoptic Reporting Expert Panel.

Topics

- Lung Cancer
 - Breast Cancer
 - Stereotactic Radiation
-

Availability

- Keynote (depending on topic and audience)
- Moderator
- Panelist